

Neely Tal Snyder Community Impact Award

This award honors the memory of Neely Tal Snyder z”l by recognizing a professional with strong commitment and passion for the Jewish community. The winner of this award has helped to build immersive and hands-on experiences/programs that have community impact and demonstrates creativity, openness and inclusion.

PLEASE SUBMIT APPLICATIONS FOR NOMINATION BY FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 2020.

Nomination Form:

Neely Snyder was a committed and passionate Jewish professional; she was able to connect, engage and inspire all who knew her and worked with her. Neely had a particular ability to create experiences, oftentimes immersive and hands-on, that helped build connections to self and to the larger community. She had a commitment to inclusion and openness that helped to define the community she wished to create. She was a risk-taker and launched new programs and ideas that bent the arc of the Jewish community toward justice, integrity and authenticity. Recipients of the Neely Tal Snyder Community Impact Award have been involved with programs/projects that speak to this advancement of the Jewish community and have demonstrated their ability to impact the community, either as an individual or through the specific program. Programs or projects that the nominee has worked on can demonstrate a new modality for the community in terms of service delivery, can serve an unmet need, can have a demonstrated level of impact or can continue to push the Jewish community toward openness and inclusion. Nominees should also share some of the attributes that Neely represented in her life and her profession.

Previous Recipients:

- 2016 Rachel Siegal, Pearlstone Center
- 2017 Molly Amster, Jews United for Justice
- 2018 Sara Rubinstein, Jewish Community Center of Greater Baltimore
- 2019 Ashley Pressman, Jewish Volunteer Connection

This award will be presented at DFI’s Celebration of Professionals on Wednesday, May 20, 2020 from 3:30 - 5:30 p.m. at the Har Sinai Oheb Shalom Congregation, 7310 Park Heights Avenue.

Please submit applications for nomination to Shirley Hott at shott@thedfi.org by Friday, March 13, 2020.
